MARIKANA COMMISSION OF INQUIRY CONTINUES

North West Provincial Commissioner Lieutenant General Zukiswa Mbombo, from the South African Police Service (SAPS), continued giving testimony at the Marikana Commission during this week.

The witness was cross-examined by five different legal representatives at the Commission and she is expected to continue giving evidence under Advocate Dali Mpofu's cross-examination on Monday 17 February 2014, when the Commission will resume hearings.

Legal counsel for the South African Human Rights Commission (SAHRC) will start cross-examining Lt Gen Mbombo as soon as Adv. Mpofu is done.

The Marikana Commission of Inquiry will not sit on Wednesday 19 February. The Commission resumes hearings at 09:00 in Centurion.
