MARIKANA COMMISSION OF INQUIRY CONTINUES

The Marikana Commission of Inquiry this week heard testimony from Captain Paul Bismark Loest, Lieutenant Colonel Stephen McIntosh and Captain Wayne Peter Kidd all from the South African Police Service (SAPS). Captain Kidd was cross-examined by Advocate Michelle Le Roux from the South African Human Rights Commission (SAHRC) and will continue testifying when the Commission resumes under cross-examination by other legal parties.

Constable Sebatyane is expected to be called as the next witness after Captain Kidd. Next week the Commission will have hearings from Monday 26 May 2014 to Friday 30 May.

The Marikana Commission of Inquiry will reconvene on Monday 26 May 2014 at 09:00 in Centurion.
